New Creative Woodenware From James Redway

New this Christmas season. The Redway Blade - an incredible cooking utensil that you won't want to put down. Handmade out of solid American Black Cherry, the Redway blade is superior to any wooden spoon or plastic spatula. This finely polished cooking tool feels silky-smooth in your hand. Finished with multiple coats of hand-rub extra virgin olive oil for a soft satin, and velvety smooth finish.

Two edges of the tool are beveled to a sharp edge allowing you to easily chop vegetables right in your pans. Use it to effortlessly deglaze a pan, making it easy to scrape off all those tasty bits of flavor left behind by conventional cooking utensils.

Great for making soups, sauces, sauteing vegetables, mixing doughs for no-knead breads, or whatever you dream up in your kitchen

This is my favorite kitchen tool, and I use it to prepare all the dishes featured in my cookbooks.

Makes a great stocking stuffer that will last for years. Measures 2' wide and 12" long.
Only $8.50.

All New Recipes The Silver Cherry Cookbook 2009

When you go into giant bookstores like Borders or Barnes and Noble isn't it shocking how many cookbooks line the shelves? Who buys all these cookbooks and do they ever cook anything out of them? Maybe you are buying it because it was written by a celebrity chef like Gordon Ramsey. He's the most famous restaurateur on earth, so why not? If you can cook his recipes, perhaps your friends will think you're a great chef as well. But, are they really going to enjoy marinated anchovy eyeballs, with squid suction cups and feta cheese over cow tongue? Is that dish really going to put a smile on your husband's face or make your kids jump for joy? Don't fall for buying a cookbook written by a talk show TV star like Rachel Ray unless you have an insatiable urge to learn how to make a hot dog soufflé.

Why not try something new? Buy a cookbook in which the food actually tastes great, and has recipes you actually use. This will be a book that will not gather dust along with all the other cookbooks that have let you down in the past.

What you need to do is to buy a cookbook from a complete nobody. That's right a nobody, so when your friends come to visit and you serve them Chicken Bacon Pond, you can take all the credit for the dish, because after all, James Redway is a nobody, so why should you give him credit? If he was a somebody, you might have mentioned it, but since he is a nobody, game over, he's out, your in. Plus, how would you explain it? "Well I'm glad everyone liked dinner, the recipe came from the furniture maker." Isn't that special? What are his specialty dishes? Dovetailed Duck, and Mortise and Tenon Tenderloin?

So what's in the cookbook? Well, we have 42 of the best recipes that ever hit your kitchen - all made with fresh ingredients. To see a full listing a recipes go to:

Come to our Christmas Open House this weekend and sample some of the great dishes we feature in this new cookbook. Signed copies available on request from Mr. Nobody.

Guess What This Thing Really Works Great

If you did not buy one of these little knife sharpeners last year, you have absolutely no idea what you are missing out on. This is the easiest knife sharpener that you will every use. HONEST!

The sharpener looks like there is absolutely no way it could possibly work. Here you have these two small metal wheels that are loosely attached to this little metal base. All you do is insert the knife at the lowest edge of the blade between the two wheels, and pull the blade back towards you, so the blade slides through the metal wheels. Do that 10 to 12 times and your done.

The first time you do it, you are shocked by the horrendous sound this process makes. You think to yourself, what in the world am I doing? I'm going to ruin this knife. But stand tough, be strong and stick it out until you have completed the process. You will be richly rewarded with an incredibly sharp knife.

Dazzle your friends this holiday season with this incredible knife sharpener, that will give them the edge they will need to carve the perfect standing rib roast or roasted turkey. Nothing says Merry Christmas more than a knife sharpener? Trust me!

And for only $6.95 each, keep one for yourself. Money Back Guarantee if you are not 100% satisfied with this baby. Remember there is nothing more dangerous in the kitchen than a dull knife, except of course me.

Back At The Silver Cherry Ken Schlitter's Pottery For The Very Last Time

The Silver Cherry is pleased and saddened to announce that we have acquired the very last remaining collection of Ken Schlitter Stoneware Pottery. Ken has stopped making pottery, exhibiting his work for the very last time in December of 2004.

Ken Schlitter Hand-thrown Stoneware Pottery was a New England treasure. When we opened the Silver Cherry in 1990 Ken was one of our first crafters. We sold a lot of his pottery out of our shop and we, like everyone else, are very disappointed that he has given up on what was truly a gift. His pottery was second to none for quality, durability and craftsmanship.

We have a limited amount of pottery to sell. Once it is sold, we will not be able to get new stock. This is your very last chance to purchase Ken Schlitter Stoneware Pottery.

Holiday Ideas

Handcrafted Butcher-Block Holiday Boards

These oval-shaped boards are handcrafted by James Redway out of quarter sawn solid American Black Cherry and Black Walnut. They measure approximately 10" x 16" and are as beautiful as they are functional. Use it in the kitchen as a light an convenient cutting board for cutting up vegetables or making a sandwich. Use it in your living room to serve soft cheeses and other hor d'oeuvres. Use it in your dining room for serving breads. You can even use it as a handsome trivet. They are great little boards that are easy to clean and easy to maintain.

The boards are constructed by first ripping the finest American Black Cherry and native Black walnut into lengths. The pieces are then turned on their sides so that the board is completely made up of quarter sawn lumber and laminated into a butcher block. Once the glue dries, we flatten the laminated board on a jointer, and then run it through the planer to thickness the board to approximately 5/8". The oval is then cut on the bandsaw, and the sides are sanded-in to clean up the oval. The top and bottom are sanded with 320 grit paper and polished with 600 grit so the surface feels almost like glass. Each board is then finished with two coats of extra virgin olive oil. These handmade butcher-block Holiday Boards make a beautiful and functional gift this holiday season. Get one for yourself. You will use it every day. Only $25.00.

Copper Weathervane Ornaments

These tiny weathervane ornaments were inspired by the larger wind indicators of Cape Cod where artist Katie McConnell lives and where she has designed such unique (always a good adjective when trying to sell stuff) ornaments.

"Crafted in New England, each weathervane is cut from copper, individually hand painted then "twist and turned" -- therefore, no two pieces are identical. No matter which tiny weathervane you choose, its whimsy will bring you years of delight."

That's what it says on the little card that comes with each ornament, so there you have it. Years and years of delight for only $16.00. You just can't get that kind of whimsy anywhere else. That's whimsy you can count on, and it won't last for just an hour, nor a day, or even a month. No, you get years of whimsy for one low price.
